12th February 1959]

SRI M. JAGANNATHAN : In view of the fact that the quantity of blood banked in the General Hospital, Madras, is not commensurate with the needs of the hospital, will the Government consider the desirability of increasing the amount paid to the donors so that more number of persons would be coming forward to give blood to the Bank?

THE HON. SRI M. A. MANICKAVELU : Sir, the amount was only recently increased from Rs. 5-8-0 to Rs. 7 per donor.
